

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS about the HINTS Book Fair

1. Are concessions available at the book fair? Yes. We also plan to post a map of the vicinity that will include locations of most fast food restaurants for your convenience.
2. Will the workshop sessions be taped? Not this year.
3. Is it possible to register for admission online or in advance? Yes. For the first time ever, attendees will be able to pre-register online using PayPal. We will still have registration onsite. All prices are the same, but hopefully the lines will be shorter.
4. Is there an additional cost for the workshop sessions? No. The admission fee covers both the book fair and the workshops.
5. May I attend just the workshops or just the book fair at a lesser fee? No. See question 4. Attendees may choose what they want to attend for their admission fee.
6. May I bring a stroller or other rolling device to haul my purchases around in the book fair? Strollers may be used only for young children and are tagged at registration. Our parking lot is very close and you may exit and enter the book fair to deposit items into your car as many times as you would like. For the safety of all attending, we do not allow rolling carts, luggage carts, rolling suitcases, or any other rolling items without a doctor's note.
7. Does my admission fee cover both days? Yes.
8. How do I get in the second day? We explain that procedure to you as you enter through the registration area.
9. Is there a place for nursing mothers to feed and change their infant? Yes. We have a room that is near the Ladies Restroom in the book fair set up for that purpose. As always, nursing babies are welcome!
10. Are my children welcome at the book fair? We will not turn your children away, but you are required keep them with you at all times. They may not run around outside or inside the buildings at any time. We will not hesitate to ask you to take misbehaving children home. Christ Covenant Church is remodeling some areas of their facilities, so safety is a serious matter this summer.

11. May I bring used books to sell at the book fair? No. Please sell your books at one of the many used curriculum sales offered throughout the year or online. You can also visit The Homeschool Room in Indian Trail to consign books.

12. Is the book fair open to HINTS members only? No. It is open to the public. Please invite your friends - whether homeschoolers or not.
